Vocabulary

Study the vocabulary words and definitions below.

caverns	underground caves formed by running water dissolving limestone over a period of time chemical weathering	the change in mineral composition or chemical makeup of a rock by chemical means; also called "decomposition" clay	a mineral found in large quantities in the soil; a common soil type found in Florida dunes	hills of sand deposited by the wind erosion	the movement of weathered rocks and soil from one place to another by wind, water, ice, or gravity glacier	a large, moving mass of ice and snow gravel	large pieces of rock and mineral in soil gravity	the force of attraction between all objects in the universe; an agent of erosion humus	the dark-colored material left in soil by the decaying of plants and animals loam	type of soil made of sand, silt, and clay

Vocabulary

loess	pieces of silt and clay deposited by wind

mechanical weathering the breakdown of rocks into smaller particles by physical means organic material formed from the remains of plants and animals runoff water that flows over Earth's surface sand small particles of rock found in soil silt soil particles that are smaller than sand but larger than clay soil a combination of small pieces of rock and organic material combined with air and water topsoil the upper layer of soil that contains a lot of humus weathering the breaking down of rocks and other materials by chemical or physical means